

TOWN OF BALLSTON COMMUNITY LIBRARY

CHECK IT OUT!

NEW AND NOTABLE @ YOUR LIBRARY

JULY 2010

Joan Weaver Retires

Joan Weaver retired in June after working at the Town of Ballston Community Library for more than 32 years. Joan was born and raised

- ★ in Schenectady and moved to Charlton 48 years ago. Her library career started at the Schenectady County Public Library where she was employed as a page. She was later employed at the KAPL
- ★ Technical Library but resigned to raise her four children.

Joan began working at the Town of Ballston Community Library on March 7, 1978. She worked with 6 library directors and 9 children's librarians. When she started working at the library there were no computers and the card catalog was just that, a multitude of hand typed cards filed by hand.

Please join the Trustees and Staff of the Town of Ballston Community Library in thanking Joan Weaver for her 32 and a half years of service to both the library and the community.

Eagle Scout Project

Glenville resident Benjamin Lafergola has spent a lot of time at the Town of Ballston Community Library.

Over the years he has participated in programs, volunteered during the summers, and borrowed a LOT of books.

When it came time to choose an Eagle Scout Project, Ben thought of the library. He decided that one of the areas of greatest need was the upstairs storage closet. While volunteering here, Ben had noticed that the closet was in dire need of a makeover.

Ben spearheaded the design, construction, and installation of 4 mobile storage units, 2 large shelving units, and a laminating table just in time for the summer reading program.

Thank you, Ben!
