The individual borrower of such materials shall be personally responsible for the same.

B. FINES, FEES AND OTHER CHARGES

Exhibits shall be open to the public only during the regular library operating hours unless special arrangements are made.
2. The library assumes no responsibility for the preservation, protection, or possible damage or theft of any item exhibited. When the exhibit is installed the exhibitor will provide a full list of the items to be displayed, including the monetary value. All items must remain on display until the end of the show, unless arranged for otherwise in advance. The exhibitor shall remove the exhibit promptly on the agreed upon date.
3. The Library Director will require the exhibitor to assure the Library that the content is appropriate for all ages and consistent with the library's ethics and policies. At the Library Director's discretion, an exhibit may be refused for failure to attain this standard. After an exhibit is accepted, any further concerns will be addressed through a hearing at a special meeting of the board, held at the discretion of the board.
4. Although exhibitors' materials may be available for sale, the attachment of prices or the use of overt commercial devices may not be used in the exhibit or display. Artists may make price lists available. However, the library shall not be responsible for handling any money from the sale of items.

D. LIBRARY HOURS

P2400

The Board of Trustees shall establish and publicize hours of library operation and a holiday schedule.

E. INTERNET USE

P2500

The Town of Ballston Community Library recognizes that the Internet is a valuable source of information and greatly extends the resources the library can make available to its patrons.

Internet users should be aware that information found there is not subject to review in the way that books and articles are when they are edited, published, reviewed and selected for purchase. Therefore the Internet may contain material that is inaccurate, outdated, controversial, and that may be offensive to some users. The library merely provides access to the Internet and is not responsible for its content or any consequences that may arise from its use.

To encourage fair and responsible use, the following Internet access rules apply:

1. Users must sign in at each computer using their own valid library card number. Patrons under 17 must have a signed permission form or have a parent with them. Those patrons not having a valid library card must show a valid picture ID and if under the age of 17 must have an adult with them. Guest passes for using the computer are available for visitors from outside of the Southern Adirondack and Mohawk Valley Library Systems.
2. Computer usage is on a first come first served basis. The computer may be used by each person for 2 hours per session and the patron may ask for a limited additional time if no one is waiting. Patrons may have a second session after an interlude of 1 hour.
3. As long as other patrons are not being disrupted, there is no limit to the number of patrons on each computer.
4. Patrons may not install programs or save files to the computer. To save files patrons may use their own flash drive or a CD, which can be purchased at the Circulation Desk. The library does not provide headphones; they may be purchased at the Circulation Desk. Printed copies may be made for a per page fee.
5. If a patron fails to adhere to library computer use rules, deliberately misuses the computer in any way, or views material that is inappropriate in a public place, it will result in the suspension of the patron's internet privileges and the possible dismissal from library grounds.
6. This policy is subject to periodic review and change.

F. EMERGENCY PROCEDURES

P2600

The director shall establish and maintain specific procedures concerning:

1. Closing of the library due to weather, power failure or other incident.
2. Steps to be taken in the event of injury to an employee or patron including, but not limited to incident reports and notification of the board president.
3. Actions which may be taken with regard to unruly or disruptive patrons.

Town of Ballston Community Library Patron Behavior Policy

The Board of Trustees believes that patrons of the Town of Ballston Community Library have the right to use the library materials and services without being disturbed or impeded by other library users, that patrons and staff have the right to a secure and comfortable environment; and that patrons and staff have the right to materials and facilities that are in good condition.

Violation of the following rules will result in a warning and/or being asked to leave the library property. Whenever necessary, police will be contacted. The director and supervisory staff have authority to carry out all powers of this policy. The director will establish procedures for staff to follow, to include written incident reports and notification of patrons and/or parents when banning a patron for anything exceeding the remainder of the day.

The Board of Trustees

The following Code of Conduct will be posted on the library website and in public areas in the library and provided directly to patrons when discussing them.

HEALTH & SAFETY

P2710

The Town of Ballston Community Library is a welcoming, service-oriented, and inclusive space for all. To promote the health and safety of those using our library, the following possible medical events will result in the staff checking on patrons and calling 911 if necessary:

- Any perceived or actual loss of sustained coherence or consciousness;
- Any library patron exhibiting signs that they may require emergency medical attention, who does not expressly instruct staff that immediate medical attention is not required;
- Any person requesting emergency medical response.

Definitions

For this policy, "loss of sustained coherence or consciousness" is the inability to communicate meaningfully with library employees in the user's primary language. For this policy, express instructions to staff that "immediate medical attention is not required" may be disregarded at the considered discretion of the library employees; such a decision will be based on consideration of: the specific facts of the situation, respect for the agency of the user, and respect for the mission and operational needs of the library.

ADA If a library patron has a medical condition that can potentially result in perceived or actual loss of coherence or consciousness, you may use the library's ADA Accommodations policy to arrange reasonable accommodations so your library experience is not unnecessarily impacted by this policy. For example, if a library patron has narcolepsy and wishes to be woken in the event they fall asleep, the library can consider a reasonable accommodation such as allowing the patron to use a specific type of alarm in an otherwise quiet space.

Specific Situations

Whenever possible, the Library uses the following specific guidelines from the CDC with respect to common medical events that can impact coherence or consciousness:

Seizures

Seizures do not usually require emergency medical attention. Only call 911 if one or more of these are true:

- The person has never had a seizure before;
- The person has difficulty breathing or waking after the seizure;
- The seizure lasts longer than 5 minutes;
- The person has another seizure soon after the first one;
- The person is hurt during the seizure;
- The seizure happens in water;
- The person has a health condition like diabetes, heart disease, or is pregnant.

Suspected opioid overdose

Call 911 if an overdose is suspected. Severely Low

Blood Sugar

Blood sugar below 55 mg/dL is considered severely low. If any of the following happens, you should call 911:

- A person with low blood sugar passes out;
- A person with low blood sugar needs a second dose of glucagon;
- A person with low blood sugar had glucagon but are still confused;
- A person with low blood sugar stays too low 20 minutes after treatment or doesn't respond to the usual treatments.

Concussion

Signs and symptoms of a dangerous concussion can include:

- One pupil larger than the other;
- Drowsiness or inability to wake up;
- A headache that gets worse and does not go away;
- Slurred speech, weakness, numbness, or decreased coordination;
- Repeated vomiting or nausea, convulsions or seizures (shaking or twitching);
- Unusual behavior, increased confusion, restlessness, or agitation;
- Loss of consciousness (passed out/knocked out).

Even a brief loss of consciousness should be taken seriously. Call 911.

The Town of Ballston Library is dedicated to providing a warm, welcoming, exciting and safe environment for people of all ages. The safety of children left alone in the library is a serious concern of the library staff. The staff, however, has many duties to perform in order to serve all the patrons and cannot monitor the behavior and assure safety of children using the library. The responsibility for the behavior and safety of children in the library rests with the parent/caregiver and not with the library staff.

1. Children under the age of 10 must be supervised at all times by a responsible caregiver. If a child under the age of 10 is attending a library program, a parent/caregiver must be in the building and aware of the location and behavior of his/her child.
2. Youths ages 10--17 may use the library on their own provided that they comply with all library rules and the Patron Code of Conduct. Unattended youths are expected to display appropriate behavior, conducive to maintaining a peaceful atmosphere in the library for all patrons. A youth will be asked to leave the premises if proper behavior is not maintained. Youths left unattended must be able to reach a parent or caregiver in case of an emergency or if removal from the library is necessitated for any reason.
3. The library is not responsible for children or youth without a ride home at closing. Library staff will exercise appropriate procedures to ensure the safety of unattended children when the library is closing.
 - a) Children may use the library phone without charge in this situation.
 - b) If the child is under 14, two staff members will remain with the child and attempt to contact the parent. After 15 minutes local authorities will be contacted.
 - c) Parents/caregivers are responsible for being aware of the library's hours of operation, and must also keep in mind that the library may close unexpectedly for reasons out of control of the staff.
Unattended children and youth should know what to do should this occur.
 - d) Library staff cannot give rides to any child.
4. Violation of this policy may result in suspension of library privileges for the family.

The purpose of this statement on material selection is to establish policies to guide staff and to inform the public about the principles upon which elections are made to develop the collection of the library.

A policy cannot replace the judgment of librarians, but stating goals and indicating boundaries will assist them in choosing from a vast array of materials available.

The library sets as its major goal in collection development and materials selection: to secure for all residents of the library's service area the informational, educational, cultural, and recreational materials in all media, both published and unpublished, that fit their needs.

A. DEFINITIONS:

P3100

1. The word "materials" used for the specific forms of media, has the widest possible meaning; it may include books (hardbound and paperbound), government documents, pamphlets, maps, magazines and journals, comic books, newspapers, broadsides, manuscripts, films, sound discs, sound tapes, slides, posters, videotapes, games, art reproductions or original art work, and software.
2. "Selection" refers to the decision that must be made either to add a given item to the collection or to retain one already in the collection. It does not refer to guidance in assisting a library user.
3. Final responsibility for selection and development of the collection lies with the Board of Library Trustees. However, the Board delegates to the Director authority to interpret and guide the application of the policy in making day-to-day selections. The Director may authorize other staff to apply this policy in building the collection. In exceptional cases the Director will present comprehensive information to the Board.
4. The primary objective of selection shall be to collect materials of contemporary significance and of permanent value. The library will always be guided by a sense of responsibility to both present and future in adding materials, which will enrich the collections and maintain an overall balance. The library also recognizes an immediate duty to make available materials for enlightenment and recreation, even though such materials may not have enduring interest or value.
5. All staff members selecting library materials will be expected to keep the objectives in mind and apply their knowledge and experience in making decisions.

B. CRITERIA OF SELECTIONS:

P3200

No item in a library collection can be indisputably accepted or rejected by any established given guide or standard. However, certain basic principles can be applied as guidelines. Every item must meet such of the following criteria as are applicable to its inclusion in the collection.

1. The degree and accomplishment of purpose.
2. Authority and competency of the author, composer, filmmaker, etc.
3. Comprehensiveness in breadth and scope.
4. Sincerity and fundamental objectivity.
5. Clarity and accuracy of presentation.
6. Appropriateness to the interests and skills of the intended users.
7. Relation to existing collections.
8. Relative importance in comparison with other materials on the subject.
9. Importance as a record of the times for present and future use.

C. USE OF LIBRARY MATERIALS:

P3300

1. The library recognizes that many materials are controversial and that any given item may offend some library user. Selections will not be made on the basis of any anticipated approval or disapproval, but solely on the merits of the work in relation to the building of the collection and to serving the interests of residents of the library's service area.
2. Library materials will not be marked or identified to show approval or disapproval of the contents, and no item will be sequestered except for the express purpose of protecting it from injury or theft.
3. The use of rare and scarce items of great value may be controlled to the extent required to preserve them from harm, but no further.
4. Responsibility for the reading, listening, and viewing of library materials by children rests with their parents or legal guardians. Selection will not be inhibited by the possibility that materials may inadvertently come into the possession of children.

D. GUIDELINES FOR COLLECTION AND SELECTION DEVELOPMENT:

P3400

1. The library takes cognizance of the purposes and resources of other libraries in the region and shall not needlessly duplicate functions and materials. Through membership in the Southern Adirondack Library System and its cooperation with the Capital District Library Council, the resources of other libraries in the region will be made available through inter-library loan and other means to the Library's patrons to the extent possible.
2. The library acknowledges the purposes of educational programs for students of all ages provided by the educational institutions in the area. Test books and curriculum related materials for these programs are provided where the materials also serve the general public or where they provide information not otherwise available.
3. Legal and medical works will be acquired only to the extent that they are useful to the layman.
4. The library acknowledges a particular interest in local and state history; therefore, it will seek to acquire appropriate state, county and local public documents, and it will take a broad view of works by and about New York authors as well as general works relating to the State of New York. However, the library is not under any obligation to add to its collections everything about New York, or produced by authors, printers or publishers with New York connections. The library will attempt to collect comprehensively works about the local community, and to the extent possible, about surrounding communities.
5. Because the library serves a public embracing a wide range of ages, educational backgrounds and reading abilities, it will always seek to select materials of varying complexity.
6. In selecting materials for the collection the library will pay due regard to the special, commercial, industrial, cultural and civic enterprises of the community.

E. GIFTS:

P3500

1. The library accepts gifts of materials and is grateful for such gifts, but it reserves the right to evaluate and to dispose of them in accordance with the criteria applied to purchased materials. Gifts, which do not accord with the library's objectives and policies, will be refused, sold at the library's book sales, or otherwise disposed of according to law. No conditions may be imposed relating to any gift either before or after its acceptance by the library. The library cannot appraise gifts for their value for tax purposes or other purposes.

2. Librarians are expected to use good judgment to remove from the collections whatever no longer serves a need, and to refurbish, by rebinding or other means, materials that might suffer deterioration if not so cared for.

F. INTELLECTUAL FREEDOM AND CENSORSHIP POLICY:

P3600

The library rejects any censorship of materials in the collection, which meet the criteria of this statement. The library will abide by the policies contained in the following Censorship Statements.

1. Any individual may reject materials for him or herself but may not restrict the freedom of others to read.
2. Whenever library material is challenged, it will be re-examined by the Library Director and, when necessary, referred by the Director to the Board of Trustees; if the material meets the criteria of the materials selection and collection development policy, it shall not be removed from the collection except by court order.
3. Complaints and/or objections to library materials will be considered in terms of the library's materials selection policy, the principles of the American Library Association Library Bill of Rights, and the opinions of the reviewing source(s) used in selection.
4. When materials are challenged library staff will:
 - a) Treat complaints with dignity and courtesy.
 - b) Provide a form "Request for Reconsideration of Library Materials" to obtain a formal complaint.
 - c) The full facts shall be presented to the Library Board of Trustees.
 - d) Defend the principles of freedom to read and the professional responsibility of the Library rather than the book.
 - e) If necessary seek the support of local press and the New York Library Association's Intellectual Freedom Committee.

5. The complaints, and/or objections, and response will be forwarded to the Library Director for review and relevant comments if received by a substitute in the Director's absence.
6. In the event that the person or group registering the objection is not satisfied, a direct meeting with the Library Director will be arranged.
7. If the complainant still feels that the problem has been dealt with inadequately, a final appeal to the Board of Trustees will be made. The Library Director will notify and inform the Board of the details of the case before a full hearing is scheduled.

A. PURPOSE OF THE LIBRARY BOARD OF TRUSTEES

P7100

Trusteeship by definition is the agency of a person or persons designated to act as governors or protectors over property belonging to another. Since a public library belongs to its entire community, library boards have been created by law to act as citizen control or governing body of the library. Library trustees accordingly are public officials and servants of the public, and the powers delegated to library boards are a public trust.

Duties and responsibilities inherent in this public trust may be loosely classified as being of two kinds: the legal responsibilities specifically enjoined upon the board by statute, and the practical responsibilities dealing with day-to-day operation of the library.

The statutory board powers, such as fiduciary responsibility, handling of buildings and real estate belonging to the library, and control of the library's finances are clearly defined in the state and municipal laws affecting libraries. Legal responsibilities of a library board are binding, and cannot be delegated. Trustees at all times must accept and abide by this fact.

B. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE LIBRARY BOARD

P7200

1. Employ a competent and qualified librarian.
2. Determine and adopt written policies to govern the operations and programs of the library.
3. Determine the purpose of the library and secure adequate funds to carry on the library's program.
4. Know the programs and needs of the library in relation to the community; keep abreast of standards and library trends.
5. Establish support and participate in a planned public relations program.
6. Assist in the preparation of the annual budget.
7. Know local and state laws and actively support library legislation in the state and nation.
8. Establish among library policies those dealing with book and material selection.

9. Attend all board meetings and see that accurate records are kept on file at the library.
10. Attend regional, state, and national trustee meetings and workshops, and affiliate with the appropriate professional organizations.
11. Be aware of the services of the state library extension agency.
12. Report regularly to the governing officials and the general public.

C. Trustee Appointment Policy

P7250

1. When a Trustee Position is vacated and must be filled, the Trustees and Staff will publicize the opening to residents of the district via the Library's website, signage at the Library, and other means suitable (as determined by the Board of Trustees and Library Director). Such publicity will include a description of the role, requirements and desired attributes of the role, and application process and timing (including the application deadline).
2. Eligible residents of the Library Special District must complete and submit the application to the Library, before the application deadline, to be considered.
3. The Trustees will assess applicants against the desired characteristics cited in Policy P7300, towards the aims cited in Policy P7200. The Trustees will (through motion of the Board) select a Trustee Candidate to promote to the Town of Ballston for formal appointment.
4. The Trustee Candidate will be briefed on Library operations and applicable regulations immediately, but cannot perform the role of the Trustee until the Town of Ballston process is complete (typically a resolution by the Town Board and swearing in of the individual (Oath of Office)).

D. DESIRABLE QUALIFICATIONS

P7300

1. Interest in the library, the community and the library's relationship to the community.
2. Readiness to devote time and effort to carrying out the duties of a trustee.
3. Recognition of the library's importance as center of community culture.
4. Close acquaintance with the community's social and economic condition and groups within the community.
5. Ability to work well with others.

6. An open mind, intellectual curiosity and respect for opinions of others.
7. Initiative and courage to plan and carry out policies, and withstand pressures and prejudices.
8. Devotion to the library's welfare and progress is the most important qualification.

5. Except in the case of executive sessions conducted pursuant to POL § 105, the Board of Trustees shall ensure that its members can be heard, seen, and identified while the meeting is being conducted, including but not limited to any motions, proposals, resolutions, and any other matter formally discussed or voted upon. The in-person participation requirements of POL § 103-a(2)(c) shall not apply during a [state disaster emergency declared by the governor pursuant to Executive Law § 28 or a local state of emergency proclaimed by the chief executive of a county, city, village or town pursuant to § 24 of the Executive Law] if the Board of Trustees determines that the circumstances necessitating the emergency declaration would affect or impair the ability of the Board of Trustees to hold an in-person meeting.

12. These procedures shall be conspicuously posted on the Town of Ballston Community Library website.
